

Editorial:

Story telling is an ancient and wonderful practice of any civilization. It has really been a wonderful experience to summarize the stories, of a College in a year, because so much varied and multidirectional stories come up, in one's mind whoever reviews the gone year. This volume is a reflection of ceaseless involvement and endeavor of all the stake holders of Bihpuria College, towards attainment of our desired mission, vision and academic goal. I warmly thank Principal Sir, my team and my colleagues whoever helped and suggested me during the editing of this volume.

News Letter 2017-18

Principal's Message:-

At Bihpuria College, we ensure that along with education and academics there are regular events of social, cultural, sporting and intellectual events that help our students and patrons to get together and be part of enriching experiences.

In the year, 2017-18, we have organized various events, which have been shared by distinguished personalities, not only to share their insight, but also to play a key role in stimulating the young minds of today. With such events we ensure that the legacy with which the College was built in this semi-rural and semi-urban area, to contribute in building up our nation and world, is preserved for millennia.

I express my immense pride and joy in the publication of the News Letter 2017-18.
